Georgia News.

The report comes to us from every part of Carroll county that crops are good.—Carroll County Times.

A negro boy named George, twelve years of age, was killed by a flash of lightning in Girard during the thunder storm of Friday afternoon.—Columbus Sun.

Henry Hamilton Eden announces himself as an independent candidate for the Legislature, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Captain J. J. Kelly.—Savannah Advertiser.

Crop prospect in Washington county still very good. Corn is filling out finely, and cotton doing all it can. The work of locating the Sandersville and Tennille Railroad has been completed.—Sandersville Herald.

The Ætna Iron Works are turning out fifteen ton of iron a day, the Cornwell from nine to ten tons, two or three others will soon be in operation. The laying of cross ties and iron on the North and South Railroad will commence in a few days. The Memphis Branch will soon reach the coal beds of Lookout Mountain.

Macon boasts of a violin that was made in 1727. Hon. James Fitzpatrick expatiated on "what I know about thieving," at the City Hall on the night of the 26th instant. He is decidedly a Greeley man; he gave fits to the "miserable vagabond crew," that have been the leaders of the Republican party in Georgia, and laid all the blame of the failure of that party on their shoulders. He went for Sam Gove, Parrott, Bryant, with the rest of the ring.—Macon Enterprise.

We have a new Baptist church in process of erection in Thomaston near the locality of the old one. The wheat in this section has made a handsome yield. The oats are much better than could have been expected. The cotton is above an average crop, while the corn crop is below that standard. For nearly three weeks a revival has been going on in the Baptist Church in this place.—Upson County News.

Perry has a string band. There is an old gentleman in Houston county who says he never had a pair of shoes until after he was grown, and had become the father of two children. A revival is progressing at the Houston Factory Baptist Church. Thirty-five have baptised. A young man named Washington Martin was struck and killed by lightning last Friday, about eight miles from Perry.—Houston Home Journal.

Judge Johnson, of Columbus, is reported better. The two thousand pound bell for the Columbus Fire Department has been received. The Jeffers engine, "Columbus," has been formally accepted by the city—terms $4,500. Lee, who has been passing around as a Confederate officer, cousin to General R. E. Lee, has been lodged in jail in Oxford, Alabama for thirty days.—Columbus Enquirer.

There is an old gentleman in the vicinity of Columbus who is the father of twenty-one children. The Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner, who has resigned his position as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Columbus, has accepted a call to the church at Athens. Dr. Skinner is a learned theologian, ripe in scholarship and piety, bold and fearless in defense of right, and outspoken in denunciation of wrong in whatever way it presents itself.—Columbus Enquirer.

Since September 1st to July 26th the manufactories of Columbus have taken 6,635 bales of cotton, against 4,864 the same period last year. Thursday afternoon, on a banter, four young men of Columbus swam down the river to the mouth of Bull creek, a distance of three and a quarter miles. They walked back. Judge James Johnson, of the Superior Court, is reported at his plantation seriously ill. He was delirious Thursday night.—Columbus Sun.

A correspondent of the Americus Republican, writing from Atlanta, in speaking of the National Hotel, says: It has made a great reputation. It is crowded all the time. The culinary department of the National cannot be excelled nor improved. Messrs. Owens & Foster are very efficient hotel managers, and elegant, and polished gentlemen. Mr. Lungcust, the chief clerk, is a very competent, affable, popular and accommodating gentleman.

The general average of the thermometer in the shade in Savannah the 26th instant was 96 at 2 o'clock. Sam Wilson, colored, was badly cut in the arm and shoulder by another negro on Saturday last. Mrs. O'Neal, of Savannah, run a nail in her foot a few days ago, it brought on lockjaw from which she died on Saturday. Sam Williams, colored drayman, was sunstruck Saturday, doubtful as to his recovery. C. F. O'Neal has been elected President of Russell Hose Company, of Savannah. A handsome gold chain and locket has been presented Miss Perla Russell, of Savannah, by one of the fire companies, for assistance in decorating the steamers on several occasions.—Savannah News.

The University commencement at Athens begins August 4th. The commencement sermon will be preached by Rev. W. H. Milburn. On Monday 5th, the Society oration will be delivered by Emory Speer, Esq. On Monday night the Phi Kappa oration will be delivered by A. C. Calhoun. On Tuesday, Alumni oration by General Robert Toombs. On Tuesday night, the Demosthenian oration by Mr. A. B. Walker. On Wednesday, orations by A. A. Murphy, R. K. Yonge, G. R. Glenn, as President graduates; and by J. A. Aycock, and W. A. Blount, seniors of the present year. On Tuesday the Alumni have their annual meeting, and at night their annual dinner. A little daughter of Henry Buesse, Esq., had an arm badly broken a few days ago.—Southern Banner.

Dove shooting is the favorite field sport around Macon. After the 1st of August the Macon banks think of closing at 1 o'clock P. M. James Wood, recently shot by Jones on Windsor Hill, is in a critical condition. Police officer Wrye is recovering from the effects of the late dangerous wound he received. The new Episcopal church (St. Barnabas) is nearly completed. A slight collision took place near the passenger depot in Macon Saturday evening between the Columbus and Central trains. The Central engine, Americus, was disabled, and the rear car in the Columbus train splintered. No one injured. We found, during a recent visit to Atlanta, that there are more candidates for office for every vacancy that will have to be filled than there ought to be if fourfold the number of offices were wanting occupants, and when to the present redundancy there shall have been added those who may fail of a re-election to the Legislature, the sum total will be something frightful. We also found that in some circuits almost every lawyer who wasn't a candidate for Judge was a candidate for Solicitor, and the less material there was for the manufacture of a good article of either, the greater the quantity offering.—Telegraph and Messenger.

Alabama News.

The people about Eufaula are going heavy on barbecues.

The State Journal learns that horses in Selma dropped down in the streets on Friday overcome by heat.

The Tuscaloosa Times estimates the loss to that county by the late rains and floods, at five hundred thousand dollars.

Twinklings.

In view of the scenes on canvas which back the stage, may we not call the little ducks who dance in the ballet, canvas backed?

"I can't drink liquor," said Bob; "it goes right to my head." "Well," said Bob's friend, "where could it go with less danger of being crowded?"

There is a woman in Newport so jealous of her husband she won't allow him to carry a pocket handkerchief for fear he will carry on a handkerchief flirtation with some of the girls. This is hard on the poor fellow's coat sleeve this weather.

SENATOR HILLYER'S PROTEST.

The following is the protest entered on the Journal of the Senate Saturday by Senator Hillyer, of the 35th District. We would have hardly deemed any protest necessary, unless for the mere purpose of explanation, as the report of the Board exhonerates him from blame and makes special favorable mention of Mr. Hillyer. But from examining the report of the committee, it appears that from the mere conciseness of the statement of certain cases, the reasons on which the Board made their decision do not appear fully. This conciseness probably arose from the very natural and proper desire of the committee to economize time and labor and save expense of printing, as when the matter was up both members of the committee in the Senate disclaimed any intention to reflect upon Mr. Hillyer.

The truth is, that for the Board to have decided over eleven hundred cases and be reversed in only thirty of them by a reviewing tribunal, is far above the average, and is very creditable. It appears too from Mr. Hillyer's card that the Board did the State much good and valuable service, their agency in which has not been before given to the public. This, we presume, refers to their agency in getting the State rid of the contract made by Blodgett after the Lease Bill passed, for $250,000 worth of new cars and engines, which we are told was moved by Mr. Hillyer in the Board and finally resulted in the lessees taking the contract off the hands of State as testified by Mr. Hill before the Lease Committee:

SENATE CHAMBER, ATLANTA.

Mr. President and Senators:

I do most respectfully protest against the report of the committee appointed to investigate the conduct of the Commissioners appointed to audit all claims against the Western and Atlantic Railroad, in so far as the same expresses any dissent from any decision made by me as a member of said board. The committee made their investigation exparte. I was not called on to give my reasons for any decision. I had no opportunity to cross-examine or produce witnesses, and have not been heard. The committee report that the evidence before them led them to a conclusion different from that of the Board in thirty-four out of over eleven hundred cases tried, only a fraction of which were approved by me, and if I had been given an opportunity to do so, I think I could have shown the committee by bringing facts to their notice not known or discovered by them, that they are in error in nearly all of these, and could have given satisfactory explanations as to those in which error actually did occur. True, the committee do not reflect upon or question the motives of the Board, but I respectfully submit that it would have been more comported with justice if the committee had informed the Senate of the ingenuity and the perjury by which the commission were in these cases imposed upon.

I do further protest against said report for the reason that in reporting the case of Lucinda Walker vs. the Western and Atlantic Railroad, the committee state the history of the case as if the law firm of which I am a member was taking cases against the State as attorneys and trying them before the Board, whilst I was myself a member of it. True it is not so stated in the report, but the case is stated in such a way that a stranger to the facts on reading the report would so understand it, when the facts are that I was employed by the mother of the plaintiff (both of them being very humble and ignorant negroes) for the collection of this claim more than two years before the commission was appointed. Neither I, nor my partner, or my firm, were employed in any way against the road after the commission was appointed. The law provides for this very case, that two of the commission may preside where the other is disqualified, which, as the report states, was the course pursued here. I do further protest against said report for the reason that by the resolution under which said committee was appointed they were required "to investigate the conduct" of said board, their wise, just and correct "conduct," as well as that in which they were in error. The one is just as much the conduct of the "Board" as the other, whereas the committee has passed by in silence what was creditable in the conduct of the Board, and have devoted their whole attention to matters in which they think the Board was in error. If called on, I could have shown the committee where the Board saved the State over $184,000 in a single item, over and above nearly a like amount of rejected claims mentioned in the report, and as to the damage cases pending against the State, the Board got them all settled at less than one-fourth of what juries would have given, and in fact for not much more than it would have cost the State in lawyers' fees to defend them.

I do not desire to impugn the motives of the committee, and if I needed any vindication (but I feel that I do not,) I would thank them for the manner in which, in the body of the report, I am exhonorated from all blame. But by what I deem to be their mistakes, as above set forth, I think that injustice is done me, and I ask leave to enter this, my protest, on the Journal of the Senate.

GEO. HILLYER.

HOUSE.

House met. Speaker Cumming in the Chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Strickland.

STATE ROAD LEASE.

Mr. Pierce, in behalf of the committee appointed to report upon the fairness or unfairness of the lease of the State Road, submitted the reports of the committee, constituting a majority report signed by four, and a minority report signed by one of the committee, and moved that 1,000 copies of the report and 300 copies of the evidence, be published, and that next Monday the report be made the special order of the day. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Guerry moved a reconsideration of the action of the House in refusing to change the lines between Quitman and Stewart county.

Mr. Reid moved to lay the motion on the table, which motion prevailed.

Mr. Sargent moved to reconsider the action of the House in refusing to change the line between Coweta and Campbell counties, in order to recommit it.

Mr. Goodman, of Campbell, concurred, and the motion to reconsider prevailed, and on motion of Mr. Sargent the bill was recommitted to the Committee on Counties and County Lines.

Mr. Hudson moved to reconsider the bill which was lost on Saturday to repeal a certain section of the Code appropriating $2,500 to the State Agricultural Society. The gentleman from Bibb (Mr. Bacon) had claimed that the fair was a success last year. He admitted that it was a success so far as concerned learned pigs, live gorillas, flying jennies, etc., and since it was so successful, he thought it ought to be self-sustaining. The only argument, he said, advanced by the gentlemen of the opposition was that the Society was instrumental in the dissemination of knowledge. The fair, he said, benefitted only the sports and a few nabob farmers in the State; the common farmer derived no sort of advantage, for they are unable to spare a moment from their farms.

Mr. Glenn hoped the discussion would not be prolonged, that the expense of discussion had already involved an expense of about $1,500 to the State, almost the amount of the appropriation, and moved to lay the motion on the table, which motion prevailed by yeas 66 and nays 42.

On motion, the following bills were read the first time:

Mr. Clegborn, of Cahttooga—To change the Constitution in the 4th paragraph, section 6, article 3.

Mr. Cain—To regulate the distribution of arms to the volunteer companies of the State.

REPORT OF BOND COMMITTEE.

To-day being the time for the special consideration of the report of the Bond Committee, the bills submitted by that Committee were taken up and acted upon. The first bill was:

"To declare the indorsement of the State's guaranty upon the bonds of the Bainbridge Cuthbert and Columbus Railroad null and void, and to prohibit the Governor, the Treasurer, or any other officer from paying the interest on the same."

Mr. Bush trusted the report of the committee would be adopted; that the road mentioned in the bill passed in the vicinity of his home, and he knew it to be unfinished; that the bonds were null and void, and ought to be repudiated.

Mr. Griffin, of Houston, said he was an unsophisticated member; that if the bonds were truly fraudulent he was in favor of repudiating them.

Several sections of the testimony were read for the enlightment of the gentlemen.

He then stated that he would vote in favor of repudiating the bonds in question.

Mr. Bacon deplored the hasty and heedless action of the House upon a question which would affect the State for one hundred years hence. He begged to give some reasons for his position upon the question. How would it sound, said he, that only fifteen minutes were consumed in acting upon the validity of six or seven millions of State bonds? He was willing to adopt the argument of the committee as his own, so far as the law was concerned. That the Legislature that granted the indorsement in question acted in violation to law, was not sufficient for him. He must be satisfied that the Legislature acted and was elected in violation to law. If errors were committed by an illegal Assembly, it must be universally acknowledged that their action was null and void. He purposed to show that the Legislature in question was not a representative assembly of the people of Georgia that the beneficiaries of these acts of indorsement proceeded to Washington and secured military interference, by which they removed from the Assembly the legitimate representatives of the people, and supplemented them with men of their own choice; that the individual (Mr. A. L. Harris) who organized that Legislature was appointed in violation to law. If that Legislature was the legitimate representatives of the people, the people, whether in law or not, were bound in morals and honor to sustain their action. The law required the last speaker to organize the House, whereas, sustained by bayonets, Mr. Harris, who organized the House, Clerk pro tem., for sixteen days, enacted a series of wrongs and oppressions that has no parallel in the history of the State. He desired to show that the State was not bound in either honor or morals, to sustain the action of the Legislature. This man Harris himself, backed by bayonets at the door, adjourned the House at his pleasure, and at the same time three military officers were sitting passing sentence on the Representatives dogmatically and imperatively dismissing them as claimants to seats in the Assembly, in support of which Mr. Bacon read from the journal of the House.

Mr. Pou begged leave to dissent from the gentleman in his statement that the House was acting hastily. The question had been before the House for an entire week, and presented in an exhaustive, clear, conclusive and perspicuous report of an able committee. He further stated that he thought the matter involved no question of honor or morals, and in support of that opinion he reminded the House and the gentleman, that the provisions of that Legislature had not been observed, and, therefore, the bonds were unauthorized and fraudulent. It was a matter of fact and history that the law had been violated in issuing the bonds, and, therefore, there was no use in repudiating them. It could be no act of repudiation. The State did not compromise its honor, its moral integrity in declaring the bonds null and void. Repudiation was superfluous and a misnomer for the nature of the case did not demand it.

Mr. Griffin, of Houston, agreed that the bonds were null and void, but since the Republican party had been arranged for the action of the Legislature in question, he, for one, thought the white people of Georgia were responsible for their own disasters in refusing to attend the polls and elect their own people as representatives in the General Assembly. He might refer to the frauds of the "Tammany Rings" of New York in response to the charge against the Republican party. He deplored the reference to politics. It become the representatives to act in the interest of the people without agitating the subject of politics.

The question was then put and the bill passed unanimously.

The next was a bill "to declare the indorsement of the State's guaranty on the bonds of the Cartersville and Van Wert Railroad and the Cherokee Railroad null and void, and to prohibit the Governor, Treasurer or any other officer from paying the principal or interest on the same."

Mr. Riley called the previous question, but was prevailed upon to withdraw it.

Mr. W. D. Anderson, of Cobb, moved that the House resolve itself into a committee of the whole. For this purpose Mr. Glenn, of Fulton, was called to preside. When the House had gone into a committee of the whole, Mr. Pierce moved that the bill be reported back to the House without amendment with recommendation that the report be adopted.

Mr. Griffin said he could not vote intelligibly without further information. The coveted information was granted by the committee; but the information, he said, was unsatisfactory.

On motion of Mr. Bacon, the committee of the whole arose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again.

On motion of Mr. Scott, the rules were suspended to take up a resolution directing the Public Printer to attach the report of the Lease Committee to the testimony taken by them, and embrace both in one pamphlet.

Mr. Scott stated that the report of the committee was founded on two charges, one that the action of the Legislature was the result of bribery and corruption. The bill authorizing the lease, he said, was introduced by himself, and was supported by the Democratic members of the House.

Mr. Pierce arose to a point of order. He hoped the gentleman would confine himself to the merits of the resolution.

Mr. Scott proceeded, stating that it was the practice of all the other committees to embrace both testimony and report in one pamphlet.

Mr. Pierce regretted that the gentleman was so precipitate. The committee made no war on the Democratic members of the Legislature. Probably if the committee had been members of the Legislature they would have voted with Mr. Scott and his gallant comrades. He arose to respond decidedly to the charge of the gentleman from Floyd, that fifty copies of the report had been distributed to outside persons; and stated that he himself had never had but one copy of the report in his hand, and the only other copy that had left the Public Printer was in the possession of the gentleman from Floyd himself. The time for adjourning having arrived the discussion was discontinued.

Leaves of absence were granted Messrs. Smith, of Oglethorpe; Wofford, of Banks; Woodall, Butts and Graham.

Adjourned.

Rockbridge Alum Springs, Va.

OPEN JUNE 15th, 1872.

The proprietor offers additional attractions this season. New, elegant and spacious Drawing and Ball Rooms, beautiful lawns, exquisite air and scenery, while the waters of these special springs invariably relieve Consumption, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, and Diarrhoea, and are for sale by leading Druggists everywhere. Readily accessible via Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. Stop at Goshen Depot, where coaches will be in waiting. Pamphlets on application. JAMES A. FRAZIER, Proprietor.

Is a powerful Tonic, especially adapted for use in the spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, DERANGEMENT OF THE LIVER AND SPLEEN, TUMORS, DROPSY, POVERTY OF THE BLOOD, DEBILITY, WEAKNESS OF THE INTESTINES, UTERINE OR URINARY ORGANS.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

It is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutricious food, taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and, by its powerful Tonic and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

JOHN Q. KELLOGG, 18 Platt st., New York, Sole Agent for the United States. Price, One Dollar per bottle. Send for Circular.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VIRGINIA.

OPEN JUNE 1st, 1872.

This favorite and celebrated Watering Place will offer additional attractions this season. Among other improvements there has been added an elegant and spacious Ball Room adjoining the parlor; the Parlor has been enlarged and much improved, and the proximity of the two renders each easily accessible. It will be kept in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia.

The waters of these special Springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Chronic Dysentery. They are also a great value in those afflictions which are familiar to the female constitution, and as an aperitizer, a tonic and a general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ball room and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at Rockbridge Alum. The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, etc. by rail, and in daylight. INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM

—OF THE—

Georgia State College.

IT is proposed to establish in connection with the STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND THE MECHANIC ARTS, an INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM—to contain models of improved agricultural implements and machines, products of agriculture, products of manufacture, and the mechanic arts generally, representing as far as possible industrial interests. This appeal is therefore made to the public, but not alone to Georgians and the people of the South, but to all interested in Industrial education, to aid us in this endeavor, by sending to the Museum of the State College whatever may illustrate Agriculture, Manufactures, or any of the Mechanic Arts.

We solicit models of machines of any character; models of bridges; plans and photographs of buildings, bridges, etc.; minerals, specimens of ores; specimens of woods; products of agriculture; products of manufacture, exhibiting as far as possible the various stages of preparation; and generally, whatever may illustrate the industrial arts.

Donations will be acknowledged by publication in the catalogue. Direct all articles to PRESIDENT STATE COLLEGE, Athens, Georgia; marked "for Industrial Museum."

The authorities of the following Railroads, viz: Georgia, Western and Atlantic, Atlanta and West Point, and Central, with its connections, have generously offered to give free transportation to all articles designed for this Museum; and it is expected the other Railroads of the State will be equally liberal.

All newspapers favorable to the cause of Industrial Education are respectfully requested to publish this card. W. L. BROUN, President.

The Radical Watchword.

"My Colored Friends: YOU MUST PUT YOUR HEEL ON THE NECK OF THE WHITE MAN AND GRIND HIM IN THE DUST."

☞ WE ARE ADVISED TO CLASP HANDS ACROSS THE BLOODY CHASM MADE BY THE WAR. I PROTEST AGAINST THIS ADVICE.—Boutwell, Grant's mouthpiece, at Greensboro.

☞ IN THIS FAITH, AND WITH THE DISTINCT UNDERSTANDING THAT IF ELECTED, I SHALL BE THE PRESIDENT, NOT OF A PARTY, BUT OF THE WHOLE PEOPLE, I ACCEPT YOUR NOMINATION IN THE CONFIDENT TRUST THAT THE MASSES OF OUR COUNTRYMEN, NORTH AND SOUTH, ARE EAGER TO CLASP HANDS ACROSS THE BLOODY CHASM, WHICH HAS TOO LONG DIVIDED THEM, FORGETTING THAT THEY HAVE BEEN ENEMIES, IN THE JOYFUL CONSCIOUSNESS THAT THEY ARE, AND MUST HENCEFORTH REMAIN, BRETHREN.—Horace Greeley.

Why Greeley Should be Voted for.

Let there be no crimination or recrimination on account of acts of other days.—A. H. Stephens.

No canvassing of past conduct. Great disasters are upon us and upon the whole country; and, without inquiring how these originated, or at whose door the fault should be laid, let us now, as comon sharers of common misfortunes, on all occasions consult only as to the best means, under the circumstances as we find them, to secure the best ends towards future amelioration.—A. H. Stephens.

Let old issues, old questions, old differences and old feuds be regarded as fossils of another epoch. They belong to what may hereafter be considered as the silurian period of our history.—A. H. Stephens.

Let all patriots, by whatever distinctive name heretofore styled, rally, in all sections everywhere, to the support of him, BE HE WHO HE MAY, WHO BEARS THE STANDARD WITH CONSTITUTIONAL UNION EMBLAZONED ON ITS FOLDS.—A. H. Stephens.

Greeley bears the standard of Constitutional Union. Let all patriots rally to him.

Let there be no canvassing of his past conduct. That belongs to the silurian period of our history.

The Savannah Republican.

Col. Sneed has ceased to edit the Savannah Republican, though he will write for it and Mr. Edwin DeLeon has become chief editor. Mr. DeLeon was Consul General to Egypt during the terms of Pierce and Buchanan, and Diplomatic Agent of the Confederate States in Europe. He edited the Republican before the war. He is a writer of brilliant ability.

We are glad to chronicle that he announces his purpose to devote his talents to the Greeley cause. We see a bright future ahead of this venerable journal.

Governor Smith's Letter of Acceptance.

We give in another column Gov. Smith's letter of acceptance of renomination for Governor by the Democracy. It is admirable. It is terse, vigorous, pointed, patriotic, and ringing. We commend it, as we have had occasion to commend all of his papers, heartily.

His administration has been a solid beneficial one. He richly merited the renomination he received.

His words upon national politics are peculiarly felicitous and proper. They breathe the true spirit of the patriot and statesman. There is no unequivocal sound in his manly utterances of purpose to stand to the party, support its programme and candidate, and work to oust Grant and his people in their policy of Southern oppression and central tyranny from office.

☞ The following, which appeared in the proceedings of the Senate in our yesterday's afternoon paper, states the case so clearly and well that we re-produce it editorially:

We would have hardly deemed any protest necessary, unless for the mere purpose of explanation, as the report of the Board exhonerates him from blame and makes special favorable mention of Mr. Hillyer. But from examining the report of the committee, it appears that from the mere conciseness of the statement of certain cases, the reasons on which the Board made their decision do not appear fully. This conciseness probably arose from the very natural and proper desire of the committee to economize time and labor and save expense of printing, as when the matter was up both members of the committee in the Senate disclaimed any intention to reflect upon Mr. Hillyer.

The truth is, that for the Board to have decided over eleven hundred cases and be reversed in only thirty of them by a reviewing tribunal, is far above the average, and is very creditable. It appears too from Mr. Hillyer's card that the Board did the State much good and valuable service, their agency in which has not been before given to the public. This, we presume, refers to their agency in getting the State rid of the contract made by Blodgett after the Lease Bill passed, for $350,000 worth of new cars and engines, which we are told was moved by Mr. Hillyer in the Board and finally resulted in the lessees taking the contract off the hands of State as testified by Mr. Hill before the Lease Committee.

BIG BUSINESS.—The sale of tickets for the days that Barnum's show exhibited in Louisville amounted to 43,000. The Commercial says this is the largest business ever done by any one show in that city before.

The Evidence and Reports About the State Road Lease.

We have before us the evidence taken about and the reports on the State Road lease. We shall give the pith of them. We will detail the evidence by subjects. The object of the inquiry was to learn if there was fraud connected with the lease. The testimony is conflicting.

Andrew Dunn, of Forsyth, testifies that General Holt, of Macon, President of the Southwestern Railroad, and one of the lessees, told him, about the time the lease was made, that Governor Bullock had an interest in one share. General Holt denied making the statement to him or anybody else. Judge Cabaniss, now deceased, testified that he would not believe Mr. Dunn on oath, and gave as a reason that Mr. Dunn had left property out of the sworn schedule of his bankrupt assets, and sough to sell it afterwards secretly. Col. Peeples was not inclined to give full credence to Mr. Dunn's statements, deeming them extravagant.

R. E. Cowart, of Atlanta, swore that Mr. Hooks, a Representative from Wilkinson county, told him that he had been employed by Governor Brown to get up men to vote for the lease, and he had twelve men, among them Dr. Maull, Zellars, Watkins, Evans, and others not remembered. Hooks while not using the word "bought," left that impression. After the bill passed witness suggested to Hooks that he got well paid, and Hooks winked and said "you know how these things are." Hooks afterwards offered to give witness something not to testify against him. Cowart saw Gov. Brown and Kimball lobbying about extensively.

Governor Brown swore that the statements of Hooks were an infamous falsehood, and demanded to be confronted with Hooks and that Hooks be sent for as a right in a matter involving his character. C. H. Hooks swore that Cowart's statements were wholy untrue.

James Mullen testified that he left all the old iron out of the inventory by Governor Brown's instructions. When confronted with Governor Brown he said he did not understand that he was instructed to conceal anything. He inventoried the new material and pointed out the old to the appraisers.

The testimony shows that the present company is composed of two wings, each of which sought the lease, the Brown wing and the Hill wing. Brown's wing consisted of Joseph E. Brown, 1½ shares; John P. King, 1; Richard Peters, 1; E. W. Cole, 1; Mr. Allen, of Missouri, 1½; Mr. Hazlehurst, who took Mr. Stephen's share, ½; Mr. May, 1; Mr. Waitzfelder, 1; H. I. Kimball, 1½; George Cook, 1; and Mr. Plant, 1.

The Hill wing consisted of Simon Cameron, 1½; John S. Delano, 1; Thomas A. Scott, 1; General W. S. Holt, 1; Wm. B. Johnston, 1; A. G. White, 1; John T. Grant, 1; Mr. Morrill, 1; Mr. Walters, 1; Mr. Nutting, 1; B. H. Hill, 1.

Mr. Dinsmore had one share and belongs to both wings. Cook's share Hill and Nutting bought for $1,500. Hill owns one of Kimball's shares, subject to hypothecation to Grant, Alexander & Co. The other half share of Kimball is under attachment.

Mr. Hill gives the tullest and clearest account of how the present lease company was formed. Hill was consulted by Hon. Dunlap Scott about the lease bill, and had letters from leading gentlemen—General Toombs and Hon. A. H. Stephens among the number—recommending it. The bill went through by the Democratic vote. After the lease was advertised, understanding that Governor Brown was getting up a company to bid for it in the interest of the Georgia Railroad and Nashville and Chattanooga road, he got up another company, involving the Macon and Western, Southwestern and Central roads. Mr. Cameron, Mr. Delano, Mr. Scott, and Mr. Walters were brought in to this company because they are connected with large railroad interests and were running lines into the South, and would be formidable rivals of the State Road to be harmonized. The two companies were finally united after numerous conferences and negotiations. Both united in putting $25,000 as the maximum rent that could be paid, the Hill Company proposing to give $50 a month more, if necessary, to secure the thing. There was a general agreement that $25,000 a year rent was as much as could be given with safety, and Brown, King and Grant refused to have anything to do with the lease at a greater rental. Several, Mr. Hill among them, agreed to put in a bid for any amount to keep the road from going into the hands of rival roads. The main object of this company seemed to be to unite all the railroad interests so that all should have an equal showing.

Bullock told Hill he didn't want to lease the road, but wanted it to "soak." Bullock wanted Gordon to be a lessee, as he had been his gubernatorial opponent.

On Tuesday the bid of this company was accepted. Seago testifies that on that night at the Kimball House, he met Hill, who, in answer to a question, did not know what disposition had been made of the matter. Hill testifies that he had been told that Seago was a dangerous man to talk to, that he didn't talk to unreliable men, and he simply evaded conversation with Seago.

There is no evidence to show that Bullock had any interest in any of the shares.

The point about which the whole interest of the matter hinges is certain testimony of Capt. A. J. White, who swore that Governor Brown and Mr. Kimball brought to the notice of the lessees the fact that there was a claim for services rendered in connection with the lease that should be paid, and that $50,000 was put at the disposal of Governor Brown to pay these services. Capt. White sold his interest and afterwards added to his testimony first given. He swore that Gov. Brown said this $50,000 was for outsiders, and not for road expenses; that he understood that this money was not to be recognized as a part of the legitimate expenses of the road; that it was to pay obligations incurred by the Brown wing prior to the partnership. The $50,000 was raised and paid out. The Treasurer was directed to take Governor Brown's note, as President, for this $50,000, and hold it as cash. Gov. Brown refused to say where this sum went. Governor Brown said $180,000 would be needed, but a portion was not pressing. Kimball had said that the lessees owed their seats to these obligations. Brown thought it better to surrender the lease than not pay this $50,000. Gen. Wm. S. Holt testified that Kimball said it would take $180,000, and declined to divulge what the amount was for; and that there was a heated discussion over it. He did not suppose the money was for the ordinary road expenses. In the report of the operations for 1872, he could not tell where this item of $50,000 could be found.

On the other hand, this transaction is thus explained. Mr. Hill testifies that the proposition to raise $50,000 as broached by Kimball and Brown was to pay outsiders who had been a part of the Brown wing, but had to be dropped when the combination was made. The Hill wing would not consent to this, though Captain White and several others agreed to give their dividends awhile for this purpose. The sum of $50,000, however, was raised and a committee appointed to see to its disbursement. Governor Brown testified that $40,000 went to the Ohio Falls Car Company and $5,000 as retaining fees to Mr. Hill and Col. Dougherty. Mr. Hill testified that no other $50,000 than the one thus accounted for had been appropriated. Gov. Brown and Wm. B Johnson corroborate Mr. Hill. Gov. Brown mentioned Dr. George D. Phillips and Gen. Gordon as among those who failed to get in, and to whom something was due. In Gen. Gordon's case, however, as he had finally declined anything to do with it, there was no obligation to pay. Gen. Holt, William B. Johnson, Mr. Hill and Governor Brown are in conflict with Capt. White. They knew of no note being ordered to be taken or being taken from Gov. Brown for the $50,000. The Treasurer, Morril, testifies that he knew nothing of such note. William B. Johnston testified that no other $50,000 was authorized to be raised; that the disposition of the $50,000 was looked into, and that it was properly applied to the expenses of the company. Mr. Hill testifies that he made the motion to raise the $50,000, and that it was for legitimate purposes.

Captain White himself testified that he did not know or have any reason to believe that any undue influence was used either with the Legislature to pass the lease bill or with the Governor to get control of the lease, or that anybody got any money.

Captain White also testified that he didn't think the State Road will ever pay more than it is now paying, unless well managed; that as now managed $25,000 a month is better than to have it in bad hands like Blodgett's.

In connection with the $50,000 matter. Levi C. Wells swears that he heard Hill, Nutting, Johnston and White talking on the Macon and Western Railroad. They discussed a claim of Kimball's for $50,000 for buying off competition. Mr. Hill testified that no such subject was discussed, and Mr. Mr. Wells had stated what was not so.

E. L. Jones, of the National Bank, testified to the business relations of Bullock and Kimball, believing that a partnership existed, and Kimball kept Bullock supplied with funds, and boasted that Bullock would help him. Kimball was sanguine of getting the lease. Jones understood from Kimball that there were large expenses incurred in getting the lease.

The testimony about the Seago-Blodgett company occupies a good deal of space. Mr. McNaught testifies that Bullock told him and Seago on the 27th of December he had no doubt of their ability to give security, and did not tell them the lease was given. That Blodgett was taken in to get information from him on which to base a bid; that Blodgett was told if Bullock desired any stock he could have it. Mr. Dobbins testified that his idea in taking Blodgett in was that he was intimate with Bullock and could influence him; that the remark was made that if Gov. Bullock had any friend who wished an interest he could have stock; that they had the idea that Bullock was on the market; that they never made any definite tender of security except the railroads whose Presidents declined to stand;" that if their scaling bid was accepted, they thought they could run the road five years, and after that time if necessary, they might have a good excuse for applying to the Legislature to reduce the rental or give up the road. Foster Blodgett testified that the company wanted him to see Bullock and find out whether he would take an interest; that they could have gotten the lease from Bullock if they could have given good security; that his idea was to throw the road back on the State if it did not pay.

Testimony showed that Governor Brown had loaned Blodgett $5,000 on a note. This was supposed to be a significant transaction; but the evidence explains that it was a loan paid up.

Appended to the evidence is a racy correspondence between Mr. Hill and Judge Reese, chairman of the committee. Mr. Hill hearing rumors of important damaging testimony, writes on the 6th of July, that if any witness has testified that the company ever authorized a dollar to be raised or paid to Bullock, or in any way to procure the lease, it is untrue, and a report on such testimony will be unjust, and that he hears that General Toombs, the feed counsel of the Seago company, was permitted an ex parte examination of witnesses and asked for hearsay evidence and conjectures. He demands a hearing.

Judge Reese replied, showing that the inquiry was fairly conducted; that General Toombs appeared not as Seago's counsel, but a citizen, who examined witnesses on facts known only to himself; that no evidence was elicited to show wrong in the Hill wing in procuring the lease, but to show that the company raised $50,000 to satisfy an unexplained obligation, to which the lessees owed their seats; that Brown was told of the evidence, but said nothing of it the next day. Judge Reese thus winds up:

"Believing that the policy of leasing this road was a wise policy—that your company was entirely reliable—that it harmonized all the railroad interests—I have felt inclined (though I did not think the rental high enough by $5,000 per month) to sustain your lease with some alteration, but I cannot do so now, since the testimony of White and Holt has been heard. I believe it is due to the people of the State that there should be an investigation before a legal tribunal, and if I were a lessee, as you are, with the conflict of opinion about the lease, with the great suspicion in the public mind of its unfairness and fraud, I would at once accept the offer of investigation before the courts and their decision upon the case.

Mr. Hill replied, contending against the ex parte examination as being unjust to the facts, to the interests involved and to the witnesses, and it was too late to remedy when the examination was over, the witnesses gone and "blustering bravado" about "bagging rogues" was beginning. The pretended suspicions of frauds grow out of no patriotism but out of selfish and designing ends. The lease company was ready to meet the charges and show who offered bribes, and attempted to "Yazoo" the people. They were ready to surrender to the people, but not to slanderers, bribing contestants, who seek to serve their own interests. He asks will the State embarrass the company with a suit and indemnify them for damages if it fails. Mr. Hill then concludes.

"Destroy the combinations and connections effected by the lessees to avoid the effect of competing lines now being completed, and the road would pay nothing. No, sir, I shall neither consent to such folly, nor allow such wrong of my own motion. Envy, avarice and contingent attorneys may make up their minds that those of us who rescued this road from one band of selfish intriguers, will not voluntarily surrender it to another."

W. M. Reese, G. M. Netherland, C. B. Hudson and G. F. Pierce, Jr., made a majority report, and A. D. Nunnally a minority report. The testimony has been ably and impartially taken. The majority report declares the lease unfairly obtained. As the security is by railroads, the committee hold that railroads are unable to be security under their charters, and therefore the security is invalid. The combination of the two wings of the present company was an unlawful agreement not to bid against each other and stifled competition. The testimony of White and Holt shows that money was used to procure the contract of lease. No evidence shows fraud in procuring the lease act. But $180,000 was used after the lease act to procure the lease contract, and the case is made out that Kimball manipulated Bullock in getting the lease. It is true there is conflict between White and Holt and the witnesses Brown, Hill and Johnston, but White is not impeached, and is disinterested, and they place more reliance in his testimony than in that of heated contestants.

The minority report discusses the various bids made, that of De Graffenried, that of the Seago company and that of the present lease company and argues that none but the last complied with the law, and Bullock had to give the lease to that. It contends that the railroad security offered is good, the boards of directors having acted authoritatively, under their charters, the stockholders have refused to interfere. In regard to the unlawful combination to stop bids, the law of auction sales does not govern. In regard to the money for "outsiders," the testimony does not make a fraud. It shows that one wing wished to pay disappointed gentlemen who couldn't get in. The lease act was a Democratic measure. Fair notice of the lease was given. One company only fulfilled the conditions and gave the security. It pays punctually a rent, generally said by railroad men, to be satisfactory. Mr. White himself says he knows of no improper influence used to get the lease, or that anybody got improper money. And Holt, Johnston, Hill and Brown all explain the transaction and show that no money was raised or paid to procure the lease act or lease contract. Mr. Nunnally argues that this is the best thing that can be done with the road. The road has had appropriations of $4,354,823, and paid into the Treasury $2,188,550, or $2,165,273 less than appropriations. In the twenty years of the lease the State will get $6,000,000. In the last twenty years the road has paid nothing. If taken back, the State must pay the $600,000 paid out by the lessees in improvements. The minority report offers a resolution that the lease is a good one, and if the appraisement is deficient for the Governor to re-appraise.

The majority make a supplemental report, showing that the inventory and appraisement of the property was partial, incomplete and under value, but they say, the lessees are willing to rectify it.

Appended to the volume is the statement of Dunlap Scott in regard to the facts of the passage of the lease bill, to show that it was carefully drawn, and passed as an honest Democratic measure without fraud or wrong.

Gov. Smith's Letter of Acceptance.

ATLANTA, July 24, 1872.

Hon. James M. Smith, Atlanta:

DEAR SIR—The undersigned have been appointed a committee by the Democratic Convention, this day assembled here, to inform you that you have been nominated by a unanimous vote of the convention as the Democratic candidate for the office of Governor of Georgia.

We herewith enclose a copy of the resolutions adopted by the convention.

It gives us great pleasure to make this communication, and to assure you that your brief administration received the cordial indorsement of the convention, as it had already previously received the approval of the people.

Permit us to express the hope of our common constituents and of ourselves personally that you will accept the renomination so heartily and unanimously tendered.

With the highest respect for your official and private character, and, with a God-speed to you in the good work you are now performing, we remain, dear sir, with great respect,

Your friends and ob't serv'ts,
JAMES M. MOBLEY,
JULIAN HARTRIDGE,
WM. E. SIMMONS,
IRA A. FOSTER,
WARREN AKIN,
Committee.

ATLANTA, GA., July 29, 1872.

Messrs. James M. Mobley, Julian Hartridge, Wm. E. Simmons, Ira R. Foster, and Warren Akin, Committee:

GENTLEMEN—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 24th instant, informing me that the State Democratic Convention had nominated me unanimously as their candidate for the office of Governor.

For this great honor I cannot command language in which to express my gratitude. The unanimity and heartiness with which the nomination was made, add another to the many obligations already resting upon me, to serve with all possible zeal and faithfulness a people who have so honored and trusted me.

The resolutions adopted by the convention have been carefully considered, and I take pleasure in stating that the principles therein enunciated meet with my warm approval. The reaffirmance of "the unchangeable doctrine that this is a Union of States, and that the indestructibility of the States of their rights and of their equality with each other is an indispensible part of our political system," is a pledge on the part of the Convention that the Democracy of Georgia will continue to adhere to the principles of Constitutional Government. These great fundamental principles of our Federal system should never be forgotten or abandoned. And yet, to use the language of one of the resolutions, I fully "recognize the exigencies of the times which suggested and secured the nomination by the Democratic party at Baltimore of Horace Greeley and B. Gratz Brown, as candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States, and regard their election as conducive to the preservation of the rights of the States, to local self-government, and the protection of the individual liberty of the citizen."

It would be uncandid in me not to say that I should have been glad if this exigency had not been upon us. The power of naming the candidates however was specifically lodged by the party in the National Convention. That convention, like a court of the last resort, is the highest party tribunal in the land, and beyond it there is no other or further appeal without going outside of the party. This latter course I cannot adopt. I cannot separate myself from my own people. Nay, more. I would stand by them, even when in the wrong, rather than give the enemies of Government my countenance and support.

The National Convention having nominated candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency, and the State Convention having recognized and accepted these candidates, I shall not permit myself to call in question either the wisdom or patriotism which directed the choice made by the one, or the acceptance and indorsement accorded by the other. The Democratic party, with Greeley and Brown as its candidates, is infinitely preferable, in my judgment, to any other political organization of the country. I shall give to the Baltimore nominees, therefore, my earnest and zealous support, believing that in their election the cause of honesty and constitutional government will achieve a triumph over fraud, corruption and usurpation.

I may add that, since my accession to office, I have had but little time to bestow upon national affairs. We have a great work before us here in Georgia, sufficient to engage the best efforts of every patriot in the State, and I have given my hand and heart to that work. To complete this work successfully it is necessary that we preserve the integrity of the Democratic party here at home. It is necessary that we be united, and zealous and forbearing, slow to condemn our brethren, or to magnify differences upon matters of minor concern. If we but pursue this course, the good work we have in hand will have been finished at no distant day. Meanwhile let us hope that the great and powerful party to which we belong will be able, with the aid of liberal and patriotic men from other political organizations to accomplish the same beneficent revolution in our national affairs, that we have already effected here in Georgia.

With the highest appreciation of the honor conferred upon me, and with many thanks for the kind terms employed by you in communicating the action of the Convention, I accept the nomination, with a pledge that, if elected, I shall to the best of my ability discharge the duties of the great trust placed in my hands by a confiding people.

Very truly,
JAMES M. SMITH.

The Sunday Excursions on the Air-Line Road.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: I see that "One who wishes to observe the fourth commandment," takes exceptions to the Atlanta and Richmond Air-Line Railway for permitting Sunday excursion trips to New Holland. I do not pro'ess to know the object of the company for so doing, nor do I propose to defend its policy, but I presume their object is to make money, and at the same time afford a cheap recreation trip to a class of our citizens who do not have the means or the time to spare to take such recreation trips during the week-a-lay.

I am not much of a missionary myself, and do not see the propriety of going abroad to do good when it pays better to work at home. It is said that "charity begins at home," and that those "who live in glass houses should not throw stones." The Atlanta and Richmond Air-Line Railway only stops in Atlanta, while the street railroad is in our midst. Its cars rumble and roll over the city throughout the blessed Sabbath day, and no one is pained or grieved at our Sunday street excursions. Which of the two is the greatest sin? My opinion is that the latter is one hundred fold the greatest. Should we not sweep and make clean our own houses before we undertake to cleanse our neighborhoods. If we cannot make the street cars keep the fourth commandment, and stop their noise and rumbling during the Sabbathday, I think that we had better let the Atlanta and Richmond Air-Line Railway alone in her country excursions. They are innocent compared with the sins in our midst. I do not believe in trying to save the Chinese before we secure our own salvation.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE—EVENING SESSION.

House met at 8½ o'clock yesterday evening for the purpose of reading bills the second time.

Mr. Russell offered a resolution to discontinue the night session after to-night, assigning as his reason the prevalence of heat and danger to members of contracting fevers.

Mr. Pou and Mr. Payne trusted the resolution would not be agreed to.

Mr. Dell moved to lay the resolution on the table, and on this motion Mr. Wood called the yeas and nays, which call was sustained.

The motion to lay on the table prevailed by yeas 53, nays 50.

The House then proceeded to reading bills the second time.

After several bills had been read Mr. Russell rose to a point of order. The Constitution required, he said, three separate and distinct readings.

The Chairman said the point was well taken.

Mr. Russell appealed from the decision of the Chair. [Laughter and applause.] The appeal was sustained.

Mr. Bruton moved to adjourn, which motion was lost.

Mr. Heidt deplored the tendency to humor, and hoped the House would give its attention to the business before them.

The House resumed the reading of bills.

Leaves of absence were granted to Messrs Edwards and Davenport.

H., Navy Yard will be assigned to command one of them.

One hundred and fifty recruits have been ordered to port Rice, Dakota.

The letters received some time ago by Mr. Sumner, signed by thirty respectable colored citizens of Washington, asking his opinions on the issue between Grant and Greeley, especially with reference to their antecedents and present position, has remained unanswered until now. It is understood that the Senator's answer will be given to the press to-morrow. In it he reviews at length the claims of the two candidates, but it is not known which way he decides. He gives as a watch word, "the unity of the republic, and the equal rights of all, with reconciliation."

Probabilities.—The low barometer on the lower lakes will move east over New England with cloudy weather; southerly winds and rain areas extending over northern and western Pennsylvania; clearing weather and southwesterly winds veering to light northerly in Virginia and the South Atlantic and Gulf States; clearing and clear weather and northerly winds on Tuesday over the lower lakes and southward to the Ohio river; partly cloudy weather with winds veering to northeasterly on the upper lakes and in the Northwest and southeasterly in the upper Mississippi.

BRUNETS, BELGIUM, July 29.—The Independence Belgem states that awards of the Geneva tribunal arbitration in cases of privateers Florida and Alabama will together amount to one million five hundred thousand pounds sterling.

ROME, ITALY, July 26.—The Pope will shortly issue an encyclical letter declaring the society of armenian catholics to be separated from the church of Rome, and placing them under the ban of excommunication.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, July 29.—The Swiss Times in giving further particulars of the proceedings of the board of arbitration, says: The board has disallowed the claims of the American Government arising out of depredations of Boston, Jeff. Davis, Music, and several other smaller confederate cruisers. The reasons leading to this action of the board are that charges of negligence on the part of the British Government, so far as these vessels are concerned, have not been proven.

STONE MOUNTAIN ACCOMMODATION TRAIN. This train and its conductor, Mr. Tuggle, are very popular. The Georgia Railroad has done noble work in putting it at this end of the line, and have been fortunate in securing a conductor, who, while faithful to the Company, is affable and polite to the traveling public.

WEEKLY ENTERTAINMENT AT THE KIMBALL HOUSE.—The regular weekly hop for the guests of the Kimball House will take place next Wednesday.

Committee of Arrangements—Mr. H. R. Christian, Hon. O. A. Bacon, Hon. Claiborne Sneed, Mr. Alton Angier, Mr. H. T. Force, Mr. E. W. Platt.

The committee will dispose of a limited number of tickets to the citizens of Atlanta.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—We call attention to the change of schedule on the Atlanta and New Orleans short line. By this line there is only one change between Atlanta and New Orleans. Double daily passenger trains are now running. Sleeping cars on this line. The time between here and New Orleans is 27 hours and 45 minutes. Passengers will recollect that this route via West Point is the shortest, quickest and only one with double daily line between here and New Orleans.

FINE FLOUR.—Among the valuable business accessions to our people has been the firm of Stewart, Austin & Co., who have moved their fine flour mills from Rome to Atlanta. The writer thanks them for a sack of their fine flour. He has never used better. It is the very perfection of excellence. It rises well, it is clean and white, and makes perfect bread. The housewives know what good flour is, and the writer risks his reputation on the statement that the flour of this firm is good.

PENDLETON, JONES & CO.—This young and enterprising firm have only been engaged in business some eighteen months and have developed a large trade. They are prompt, energetic and reliable, always meeting their bills promptly. Parties who consign goods to them will find them prompt in making returns. In grain, provisions, etc., they keep a constant and full supply. They are now selling new clover hay produced in one mile of this city, and also on the Air-Line Railway. We take pleasure in commending them to the public.

THE WEATHER.—The following is the state of the thermometer yesterday, as kept by H. C. Pope, druggist: 8 o'clock A. M. 80; 10 o'clock A. M. 82; 12 o'clock M. 86; 2 o'clock P. M. 88; 4 o'clock P. M. 90; 6 o'clock P. M. 90.

THE SILVER BRIDAL.

"The flight of five and twenty years
Has brought the silver wedding;
The nuptial torch again appears,
Its sacred glory spreading,
From silver bells, a sweetness floats,
Like fairy music, o'er us,
And every voice, with joyful notes,
Joins in the wedding chorus."

Sunday night the silver wedding of our esteemed friends, Mr. and Mrs. David Mayer, came off. The bride was subdued and comely, the husband proud and handsome, and as the eye rested upon them one could not help repeating:

"What is the world to them—
Its pomp, its pleasures and its nonsense all?"

A number of friends were present, adding to the enjoyment of the occasion, and appreciated presents were given.

For the loving couple we invoke Heaven's tenderest favor and fortune's sweetest smiles. May their life bark be safely moored into the haven of happiness in their Golden Wedding, and the witching glamour of "love's young dream" endure to the end.

MORE KU-KLUX.—Yesterday Robert Grant, Thomas Grant, A. J. Grant, Wallace Lyle, James Lyle, and Wm. Inslow, of Gordon county, were arranged before United States Commissioner John L. Conley for a preliminary hearing on the charge of going on the premises of Daniel Kelley, of Gordon county, and depriving him of his constitutional rights, or in other words they are charged with a violation of the sixth section of the enforcement act.

The United States Government is represented by Assistant United States District Attorney George S. Thomas.

The accused are represented by Gen. W. T. Wofford, Col. John W. Wofford, Col. W. H Dabney, Gen. L. J. Gartrell, Col. A. B. Culberson and Major John C. Fain.

At the opening of the case counsel for the government wanted to continue the case on the ground of the absence of two material witnesses, John Cobb and Wesley Ballew. United States Commissioner Conley stated that the case had already been continued two weeks, and it would be unjust to require the prisoners to remain longer without a trial.

The trial commenced by the government introducing the prosecutor, Daniel Kelly. We shall content ourselves with a brief synopsis of the evidence. He narrated his tale which was characterized by one of the facetious counsel for the defense as

"THE SHOE-STRING TALE."

He stated that parties came to his house on the night of the 22d of October, just before the moon went down, and asked him to show them the road. He told them that he would not go, whereupon they said he had to go. They claimed to be spirits from Chicamauga. Witness jumped back into the house, and they followed him and grabbed him, and asked him if he had rather take one hundred lashes than be shot. They wanted to know why witness fell out with some of his neighbors. He replied that he had made up with them. Witness knew some of the men. They were disguised—their voices were disguised. Recognized Robert Grant by his shoe being untied—the string in the vamp—could not tell his voice, but it was the same size. The men carried him on a dim wagon road some 350 yards and there whipped him. They whipped him with chestnut boughs and hickory bark whips six feet long. They hid the whips under their arms. They gave him about sixty-five licks about two hours before day. They cut his back all to pieces, riddled his shirt and bruised him. They made him stand with arms and legs extended. He saw under Grant's mask, but not under the others. A. J. Grant did not whip him, but handed the whip over to others. Witness knew his voice. Recognized James Lyle by his voice. They whipped pretty tight. One held a pistol before and one behind him, and said if he made a fuss they would shoot him. Knew William Inslow by his voice and his losing his hat. He came back for it and claimed it. He lived 12 or 15 miles off, and said the others made him come. Witness knew Curtis Morgan by his size. Robert Grant asked him what he was loafing up and down the road for. Witness on being cross examined by General Wofford said that he was whipped because he drew a few rocks on a minister who lives about a mile from the Grants.

When the party were done whipping witness they faced him about and told him to run, which he refused to do. Robert and Thomas Grant and Curtis Morgan, at different times, held him by the right hand, and Nesbit, Gray, and Parker by the left. Jack Grant held a pistol in front, and Nesbit one behind witness.

The parties had false hats on with rims in them to make them run out, and tushes as long your finger with which they made a mighty chattering. Witness does not know how many horses there were, or who was holding them. The parties had on gray jeans clothes badly worn. Robert Grant's shoes were untied and run down—the way he usually wore them, except at public gatherings. Inslow said he was afraid to swear who was there.

Larkin Jones testified that he heard Thomas Grant say that he expected a party of disguised men to go by witness' house, and for witness and his son not to shoot at them.

William Chastain saw Kelley's back two or three days after the whipping, and it was badly bruised and cut up.

William Coggins detailed what William Inslow told him. The parties blindfolded him and maltreated him. On their return they carried him a quarter of a mile beyond his house, took off the bandage and turned him loose. There were only two men and they jumped into the bushes.

E. F. Langston heard Robert Grant say three weeks before the whipping that Kelley ought to be run out of the country.

The government announced closed.

General Gartrell made a motion to discharge the accused, the government having failed to make out a case which was overruled by the commissioner.

Curtis Morgan, J. E. Nesbit, George Gray and Robert Parker, included in the warrant, were not arrested.

The defense offered L. W. Lyle as their first witness. Kelly stated to witness that he didn't believe the Grant or Lyle boys were in it. Witness was at home that night, and the Lyle boys were at home also. Witness, from a knowledge of Kelly's general character, would not believe him on his oath.

Mrs. Mary Ann Lyle testified that her boys were at home till sundown. The boys went to a corn shucking at their brothers and returned at 9 o'clock and went to bed. She is very wakeful and knows they were there.

Miss Sarah Grant states that her brothers were at home that night. About eleven o'clock a party of men passed shouting and singing. Witness held one of her brothers from going out to see them, as one of her brothers had been shot at several nights previous. The party returned about one o'clock.

G. P. Dodson has known Kelley for twenty years. Would not believe him on his oath.

W. Taylor, Deputy Sheriff, was returning from Calhoun on the night of the 22d of October, 1871. As he turned off the main road to go home, heard horses' feet. Saw nine men pass on horseback. Eight were disguised—one whom he took to be Inslow was riding in the rear, not disguised. There were six horses; some of them carried double. This was on the road leading from Calhoun to Kelly's, some 10 or 12 miles from Kelly's. Would not believe Kelly where he was interested.

Robert Adcock states that about ten o'clock a party came to his house and took two mules. Witness lives some 7 or 8 miles from the Grants and Lyles. The mules were returned early the next morning, and had been rode very hard. There were 8 men disguised. Witness lives about a mile from Taylor, and 1¼ miles from Inslow. The same party took two horses that night from Binnon.

Osborne Adams stated that about 9½ o'clock on the 22d of October he was aroused from sleep. Saw two men going off. They carried off two saddles. Saw Inslow a few days afterwards. His face was hurt. Wouldn't believe Kelley where a good deal was at stake.

T. H. Lyle was at home with his two brothers that night. James slept in bed with witness. Wallace was at home.

Mrs. Margaret Stewart was at Inslow's that night. A man came and took him off. Heard the crowd shooting off pistols.

The defense closed, and the Government resumed.

Joshua Horton, W. Chastain, Larkin Jones, Columbus Kelley, D. Murphy, Harvey Chastain, Hosea Jones and E. F. Langston testified that they would believe Kelley on his oath. George Horton had never heard anything against him before this trial, but he thought in this case he had sworn right slap at random.

Col. W. H. Dabney and Gen. Gartrell of the defense made speeches, contending that no case had been made out, and that an alibi had been clearly established.

Assistant United States District Attorney Thomas replied on the part of the Government.

The Commissioner announced that he would dismiss the warrant as to James Lyle and Wallace Lyle, and would to-morrow announce his decision as to Robert, Thomas and A. J. Grant. He would require William Inslow to give bond, and to-morrow would fix the amount.

ATLANTA MINERAL SPRING CURES.—Mr. Sanders: I had been suffering for five years with a very severe case of Dyspepsia. I hereby recommend it to all afflicted as I was.
Yours, etc., JAS. STEWART,

Mr. Sanders: From long illness I was reduced to a skeleton—was generally debilitated—had no appetite, etc. I commenced using the Atlanta Mineral Spring water, and in less than a week commenced to improve; my appetite became better than ever; could eat and digest any kind of food, and soon gained flesh at the rate of three-fourths of a pound daily. Mr. Sanders: I can and do cordially recommend the Atlanta Mineral Spring water for the cure of Rheumatism. It is well to use it in bathing as well as drinking. The Liberal Platform.

The following are the resolutions in full adopted by the Liberal Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in May, and endorsed by the Democratic Convention in July:

We, the Liberal Republicans of the United States, in National Convention assembled at Cincinnati, proclaim the following principles as essential to a just government.

First—We recognize the equality of all men before the law, and hold that it is the duty of the government, in its dealings with the people, to mete out equal and exact justice to all; of whatever nativity, race color, persuasion, religious or political.

Second—We pledge ourselves to maintain the union of these States, emancipation and enfranchisement, and to oppose any reopening of the questions settled by the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments of the Constitution.

Third—We demand the immediate and absolute removal of all disabilities imposed on account of the rebellion, which was finally subdued seven years ago, believing that universal amnesty will result in the complete pacification of all sections of the country.

Fourth—Local self-government, with impartial suffrage, will guard the rights of all citizens more securely than any centralized power. The public welfare requires the supremacy of the civil over the military authority, and the freedom of person under the protection of the habeas corpus. We demand for the individual the largest liberty consistent with public order, for the States self-government, and for the nation a return to the methods of peace and the constitutional limitations of power.

Fifth—The civil service of the government has become a mere instrument of partisan tyranny and personal ambition, and an object of selfish greed. It is a scandal and reproach upon our free institutions, and breeds a demoralization dangerous to the perpetuity of republican government. We, therefore, regard a thorough reform of the civil service as one of the most pressing necessities of the hour; that honesty, capacity and fidelity constitute the only valid claims to public employment; that the offices of the government cease to be a matter of arbitrary favoritism and patronage, and that public stations become again posts of honor. To this end it is imperatively required that no President shall be a candidate for re-election.

Sixth—We demand a system of Federal taxation which shall not necessarily interfere with the industry of the people, and which shall provide means necessary to pay the expenses of the government, economically administered, pensions, the interest on the public debt, and a moderate reduction, annually, of the principal thereof, and recognizing that there are in our midst honest but irreconcilable differences of opinion with regard to the respective systems of protection and free trade, we remit discussion of the subject to the people in their Congressional districts, and to the decision of Congress thereon, wholly free of Executive influence or dictation.

Seventh—The public credit, must be sacredly maintained, and we denounce repudiation in every form and guise.

Eighth—A speedy return to specie payments is demanded alike by the highest considerations of commercial morality and honest government.

Ninth—We remember with gratitude the heroism and sacrifice of the soldiers and sailors of the republic, and no act of ours shall ever detract from their justly earned fame or the full reward of their patriotism.

Tenth—We are opposed to all further grants of lands to railroads or other corporations. The public domain should be held sacred to actual settlers.

Eleventh—We hold that it is the duty of the government, in its intercourse with foreign nations, to cultivate the friendship of peace by treating with all on fair and equal terms, regarding it alike dishonorable either to demand what is not right or to submit to what is wrong.

Twelfth—For the promotion and success of these vital principles, and the support of the candidates nominated by this convention, we invite and cordially welcome the cooperation of all patriotic citizens, without regard to previous political affiliation.

TIME and enlightened experience have shown that certain substances formerly used and relied on in medical practice, are unnecessary and dangerous; yet some of these substances have found their way into medical compounds. Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters, however, contain nothing injurious, being composed exclusively of vegetable substances from California. For all disorders of the liver, kidneys, bladder, skin, and digestive organs, and for purifying the blood, they are the most wonderful remedy known.

CLAP-TRAP AND CANT.—Invalid reader, if you are unwise enough to put yourself outside of any of the mock tonics guaranteed to contain "no diffusive stimulant," you will inevitably come to grief. Ask your physician if any liquor preparation, destitute of stimulating properties is worthy of the name of a tonic. He will tell you no. Shun all such nauseous catchpennies. Plantation Bitters, the most wholesome invigorant in the world, owes the rapidity with which it relieves the disordered stomach and the shattered nerves to the diffusive agent which conveys its medicinal ingredients to the seat of the complaint. That agent is the spirit of the sugar cane, the most nutritious and agreeable of all the varieties of alcohol. The medicinal ingredients of the Bitters, valuable as they are, would be comparatively useless without this distributive basis. They would ferment and sour. Beware, as you hope for health of the horrible compounds of refuse drugs in a state of fermentation which humbugs are endeavoring to foist upon the public as medicines.

IF you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples, Blotches and Eruptions, purify your blood by taking Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

THE WEAR AND TEAR OF LIFE.—The cares, anxieties and misfortunes of life have as much to do with shortening it as disease. They are in fact the source of many ailments and physical disabilities. Nervous weakness, dyspepsia, affections of the liver, disturbances of the bowels, headaches, hypychondria and monomania are among these distressing fruits. It is, therefore, of great importance that persons whose minds are oppressed with heavy business responsibilities, or harassed by family troubles, or excited by speculation, or perplexed by a multiplicity of enterprises, or in any way over-taxed or overworked, should keep up their stamina by the daily use of a wholesome tonic. Thousands of persons thus circumstanced are enabled to bear up against the difficulties in which they are involved, and to retain their strength, health and mental clearness, by the regular use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Diseases which are prone to attack the body when debilitated and broken down by over-much brain-work, or exhausting physical labor, are kept at bay by the resistant power with which this incomparable tonic endows the nervous system and the vital organs. At this season, when the heat is evaporating the elements of strength from every pore, an invigorant is absolutely essential to the safety and comfort of the public, and is required even by the more robust if they desire to keep their athletic capabilities in status quo. Hence a course of Hostetter's Bitters is particularly useful at this period of the year as a defense against the invisible disease afloat in a sultry atmosphere. It is the most potent of all preventive medicines, and for all complaints which affect the stomach, the liver and the bowels, and interfere with the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, it is the standard remedy.

IF long experience and a thorough knowledge of the business in all its diversified branches are essential to the keeping that which the public has long heard of but seldom seen,

A GOOD HOTEL,

The undersigned flatter themselves that they are fully competent to discharge their obligations to their patrons. But they are not only experienced in hotel keeping—they modestly would claim to have

THE BEST ARRANGED AND MOST COMPLETELY AND EXPENSIVELY FURNISHED

House throughout, in the State, which is located exactly where everybody would have it situated, immediately in Front and Adjacent to the Passenger Depot, where travelers can enjoy the most sleep and less liabilities to be left by the perplexingly constant departure of the trains.

To all these important advantages is added a table that is well supplied with the best and choicest dishes the city and country can afford; nor would they omit to mention that their servants, trained to the business, have never been surpassed for politeness and attention to guests.

For the truth of these statements, we refer the public to our patrons who reside in every state in the Union.
